Jungaleers Grab Game Out of Fire by Ninth-inning Rally, Beating Nationals 3 to 2.

HARPER IS UNSTEADY

By WILLIAM PEET.

Detroit, Mich., June 3.-The Griffmen had the ball game firmly within grasp this afternoon, only to lose it in the final haif of the ninth after two had gone, when Donie Bush skashed a wicked drive to right center, with second and third bases clogged. This wallop brought the Tigers from behind a 2-to-1 score and gave them a well-earned victory.

but three hits, striking out eight and walking five. The early run obtained by the Tigers was in the nature of a gift. With the crowd yelling like Indians, Har-With the crowd yelling like Indians, Harper got away to a bad start in the final half of the ninth, passing Burns, the first man to face him. There were two called balls and no strikes on Young when Griff yanked Harper and substituted Ayers. It was while Ayers was in the box that the Tigers kicked the props from underneath Washington's slender one-run lead, and Ayers, himself, was partly to blame for the catastrophe.

Opposed to Harper was Jean Dubuc, the little bow-legged Frenchman, who al-little bow-legged Frenchman, who al-ways gives the Nationals a lot of trouble. Dubuc also pitched fine ball and was much steadier than Harper.

The real thriller was provided by Joe Judge, who, in the Tigers' half of the ninth, speared a line drive off Dubuc's hat with the bases full, nobody out and Kavanaugh, completing a double With the exception of the seventh and with the exception of the seventh and eighth innings, Harry Harper was always in trouble. He simply could not keep the Jungaleers off the base paths, and his work in the face of all this was nothing short of marvelous.

Detroit grabbed a lucky run in the first inning. Bush had fanned when Vitt drew a pass. Cobb laid down a bunt, which Poster gobbled up with one hand while on the dead run. A good throw would have turned back Tyrus at first, but Foster slammed the ball to the stands and before it could be recovered Vitt had crossed the plate and Cobb was dusting himself at third base. Harper then settled down and retired the side.

The count was 2 to 1 in favor of the Griffmen until the final half of the ninth, when the Jungaleers simply took matters in their own hands and came across with the necessary runs to bring home the bacon.

As stated in the foregoing, Harper had walked Burns and delivered two balls to Young, when Ayers took up the burden, Young bounded the ball off Ayers shins for a single. Kavanaugh bunted to Ayers, who threw too late to Foster at third in an attempt to turn back Burne, the result being that all hands were safe, and when Dubuc came to bat the bases were full, and nobody out.

Giants Are Playing Real Baseball Now.

By JOHN J. McGRAW.

I never had any doubt as to the real strength of the Giants. When we were losing games before the Western trip began I knew that we would begin to win as soon as the pitchers became fit. Perritt is in better shape than last year and so is Strong. Mathewson is himself again, and as for Anderson, I believe that he will come near leading the league in percentage of victories. Benton, handicapped with a lame arm until we struck warm weather, will have a big year, and as soon as Tesreau rounds into form the team will be well fixed in the pitching department. The Giants are playing real baseball now. They are hitting hard and are very fast on the bases. The fielding is steady and they are taking desperate chances. All things considered, the team is the best that I have managed in the last ten years.
